Section C: Project Description

1. Project description

This is the most important component of your application. It should be prepared by yourself and have the approval of your home and host supervisors. The description must include sufficient scientific, medical and/or technical detail to allow evaluation of the significance of the problem and the likelihood that the project will have a successful outcome. This should be the equivalent to, but no more than, 2 single-spaced pages, using a font size equivalent to Verdana 9, with page margins at of about 1.6 cm or 5/8 inch all around, for standard A4 paper size.

2. Cost estimates

Travel cost estimates should be obtained from a reputable travel agent and should cover the least expensive international two-way air fare from gateway to gateway, or other appropriate form of transport.

Monthly stipend estimates should be established in consultation with the host supervisor.

Once awarded, the funding cannot be increased.

3. Other funding

Please inform us if are receiving funding from other sources and if so, how much.

Documents

Only complete applications are accepted and processed. Check carefully that all supporting material required for the YY fellowship has been uploaded and submitted with your online application.

a. Publications

Enclose your list of publications (if any) in English. Publications should state the name(s) and initials of author(s), the year of publication (in parentheses), the title of the article and journal (underlined), the volume number (in Arabic numerals) and the first and last page numbers.

Example: Smith, J. and Jones, H. (1989) Water Retention. The Scalpel. 46, pp. 123-196

The reprints from the Applicant and Host Supervisor should show the respective names of the Applicant and the Host Supervisor in the list of authors.

b. Home

Your supervisor's hand-signed letter of release on headed paper should authorise your leave of absence during the planned project period, indicate that, if successful, a position will be open to you on completion of the fellowship, and confirm the relevance of and support for your proposed work. It should attest to your proficiency in the working language at the proposed host institute/society. This needs to be uploaded in the online application form.

c. Host:

Your host supervisor's formal hand-signed letter of invitation on headed paper should confirm the agreement and dates for your proposed project and uploaded in the online application form.

A hand-signed Host Attestation is to be downloaded from the online application form. You should pre-complete this form as necessary and send it on to your host for signature. Once completed and hand-signed, the form must be uploaded back in the online application form.

Section E: Declarations

Do not forget to hand-sign and date your application form. To do so, a standard Agreement form embedded in the online application form is to be downloaded, hand-signed and uploaded back as scanned document.
