What is the Global Virtual Cancer Conference (GVCC)?

- Unique Focus on Patients and Care Partners: GVCC is the largest oncology gathering dedicated entirely to people impacted by cancer. This means that the conference is centered around the needs, experiences, and perspectives of patients and care partners.
- Multi-stakeholder Collaboration: GVCC brings together a diverse range of stakeholders, including medicine developers, healthcare providers, advocates, and peers. This collaborative approach allows for bold and impactful conversations that can lead to real change in the field of oncology.
- Content Developed with Patients and Care Partners: The content presented at GVCC is developed with and for patients and care partners. This means that it's not just about medical advancements but also about addressing the holistic needs of individuals facing cancer.
