Welcome note

As you read this, the Union for International Cancer Control (UICC) and the 2018 World Cancer Congress host, the National Cancer Society of Malaysia are working diligently to put in place an enlightening conference to be held in Kuala Lumpur from 1 – 4 October 2018. You are invited to join us on the 2018 Congress journey, and be part of the rewarding experience of a conference that fosters a unique platform of sharing, learning, networking, and even mentoring.

As a Congress sponsor or exhibitor, you will have the opportunity to partake and be involved in a conference that features a wide choice of multidisciplinary sessions and educational initiatives, all designed to encourage the exchange of evidence-based methods so that knowledge can be translated into action to advance cancer control, globally and nationally.

From prevention to survivorship and palliative and end-of-life care, the programme will cover the most effective initiatives and best practices across the full spectrum of cancer control.

Patient and family experiences will also be highly profiled across many dedicated sessions, as will be sustainable health systems. A capacity building offer will be integrated in the programme, with the aim to empower not only civil societies and their leadership but also primary healthcare workers. Key areas such as advocacy, education and training and non-communicable diseases will also strongly feature across all tracks and be presented in a very pragmatic way.

The 2018 Congress’ theme is Strengthen. Inspire. Deliver. This is in recognition that if we can all leave with a couple of novel ideas or effective tools that we picked up at the Congress and that we can apply to our respective jobs or settings, it counts as a success. We can all contribute to and be part of that success.

Welcome on board.

Become a Congress sponsor

International conferences are rich with sponsorship opportunities and their usual associated benefits: they can strengthen your organisation’s reputation in the industry, create an interesting pipeline for new partnerships, and provide renewed inspiration for business and your teams. And this is already exciting.

The World Cancer Congress offers all of this, but also something which sets it apart from other events: its human size and community spirit. This means that as a Congress sponsor you can play a significant and very active role ahead, during and after the conference. Ultimately, it also means that you and your organisation will highly contribute to and influence the further development of a strong global cancer control movement.

In ensuring a positive impact and return on investment for your organisation your participation will enable you to take advantage of the following Congress unique benefits:

• Go viral: the event’s popularity and growing attendance mainly results from word-of-mouth and recommendations of the international cancer and health community. The 2016 Congress in Paris engaged 3,260 participants from 139 countries, a 20% increase in attendance from the 2014 Congress in Melbourne

• Reach out to a broad audience: engage with experts who represent the full spectrum of cancer control

• Endorse other organisations or prominent individuals, involving them in your activities or supporting their attendance and work

• Lead: use the Congress as a highly visible platform to showcase your leadership and pioneering initiatives. Make meaningful connections with other cancer and health professionals and emerging young leaders.

“Congratulations on a successful World Cancer Congress in Paris! UICC’s dedication to working with all stakeholders was clearly evident and much appreciated – and certainly helped reinforce the Congress as a place for collaborative conversation among all contributors on matters impacting the cancer control community.”

Tim Fisher, Senior Director, Global Policy & Strategy, Global Government Affairs & Policy, EMD Serono, United States

Moreover, the programme featured innovative, practical, interactive sessions, enhancing the educational value with more effective communication and learning as compared to the more traditional didactic approaches often seen. “The aim for CRUK at the 2016 Congress was to raise our profile with the international cancer community and find partners in the global fight against cancer. The stand met both these objectives, and the staff who worked on the booth left the Congress inspired by the people they met.”
